

- Significant overseas experience in sub-Saharan Africa
- Intermediate fluency in Swahili, Hausa, or Wolof
- Professional development, mentorship, and tutoring
- Additional support for critical language study may be available through specific military branches

ROTC Students Receive:

How: Apply for a Nenda scholarship by contacting the coordinator at the school where you wish to study
 Where: At any one of the Nenda Alliance universities
 Why: To develop language and cultural expertise in the officer ranks and society at large
 Who: ROTC students from any service and any university
 What: Study of Swahili, Wolof or Hausa language in the U.S. and Africa

NENDA The ROTC Language & Culture Project

<http://www.rotcprojectgo.org/africa/>

Funded by the U.S. Department of Defense

THE ROTC LANGUAGE & CULTURE PROJECT

NENDA

A joint honor corps for future officers interested in Sub-Saharan Africa

BOSTON UNIVERSITY • JAMES MADISON UNIVERSITY • SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY • UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA

An Alliance of Universities Offering Instruction in the Languages and Cultures of Sub-Saharan Africa

JMU ROTC Duke Battalion offers:

- A World-Class Leadership Course
- College now – military later
- Career producing program
- Classroom & hands-on training
- Problem solving & adventure training
- Pay & benefits
- 2 to 4-year scholarships
- Mentoring & coaching
- Adventure & travel
- Serve your country

Specific Alliance Offerings & Contact Info

Boston University	Hausa – Academic Year; Summer Intensive; Study in Niger Wolof – Academic Year; Summer Intensive; Study in Senegal Dr. Giselle Khoury (617) 358-5852	giselle@bu.edu
James Madison University	Hausa – Study in Ghana Swahili – Academic Year; Study in Kenya Ms. Lorie Merrow (540) 568-3975	merrowee@jmu.edu
Southern University	Swahili – Academic Year; Summer Intensive Wolof – Academic Year; Summer Intensive; Study in Senegal Dr. Barbara Carpenter (225) 771-2613	barbara_carpenter@subr.edu
University of Virginia	Swahili – Academic Year; Summer Intensive Dr. Rich Cohen (434) 924-3690	rjc8s@virginia.edu

The Nenda Alliance in Africa

NENDA JMU offers ROTC students

- Scholarships for JMU Summer in Kenya*
  - Swahili instruction at JMU
  - Scholarships for Internship in Kenya*
  - Scholarships for intensive summer study of Swahili
  - Support for Capstone projects in E. Africa*
  - Special advising
- *with no commitment increase!

Questions? Email nenda@jmu.edu

NENDA JMU Flow Chart

